Orson Pratt

1811 September 19th, 1911

To the descendants of Anson, William D., Parley P., Orson and Nelson Pratt

Greeting: You are cordially invited to attend a Pratt Family Reunion

in commemoration of the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of the late Apostle and great Pioneer, Orson Pratt

Under the auspices of the First Presidency of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Memorial Services will be held at the Salt Lake Tabernacle at the Sunday morning session of the General Conference, Oct. 8th, 1911. Seats will be reserved for the Pratt relatives, and it is requested that all in attendance will be in their respective places early and promptly.

The following day—on Monday, Oct. 9th, at 2 p. m.—a Pratt Family Reunion will be held at the Granite Stake Tabernacle, corner Fourteenth South and State Streets, where old acquaintances will be renewed and new ones formed. There will be a banquet, addresses and an interesting program, and in the evening dancing, etc.

It is especially desired that all relatives, both old and young, both near and far, attend. Bring picnic.

Very cordially yours,
MILANDO PRATT, President.
LATHILLA P. KIMBALL,
Chairman Invitation Committee.
VALTON M. PRATT, Secretary.

Sept. 15, 1911.
Salt Lake City, Utah,

It was the intention to have held the Family Reunion on the 19th of September, the one hundredth anniversary of Apostle Pratt's birthday, and also the unveiling of his monument at the Cemetery to have taken place at the same time, as announced through the press; but an accident happened to the monument in its manufacture, rendering the date of its completion and shipment indefinite.

As soon as this was learned a committee meeting was immediately called, at which a postponement of the Reunion and Memorial Services was advised. It was decided to hold the Reunion on October 9th, as many of the relatives residing outside the city could take advantage of the Conference rates to visit Salt Lake City and be present at the Family Reunion.

The unveiling of the monument was postponed to a still later date—July 21st, 1912—which will be the sixty-fifth Pioneer anniversary of Apostle Pratt's entrance of the Valley of Great Salt Lake.

To meet the general expenses, contributions will be gratefully received, and may be sent to Mathoni W. Pratt, Treasurer, 778 Ashton Ave., Salt Lake City, Utah.

A Genealogical Record is being kept of the ancestors and descendants of the Pratt family, which is intended to be published in pamphlet form in the near future, so that the descendants may have a complete pedigree of their ancestry. Therefore, it is requested that the descendants of the five foregoing named Pratt brothers send me the names of all marriages and children born since the last Pratt Family Reunion, held on the occasion of the Centennial Anniversary Celebration of the birth of Apostle Parley Parker Pratt, April 12, 1907. Also those who have neglected to send in their genealogy prior thereto will please do so.

The information should state names in full, when and where born; when, where and to whom married, and by whom; date of birth and place, of husband or wife; date of death and place.

Respectfully,

MILANDO PRATT.

Address: 565 So. State Street, Salt Lake City, Utah.
